The call came amid US warnings that a Russian invasion of Ukraine could happen as soon as this week.

“President Biden made clear that the United States would respond swiftly and decisively, together with its Allies and partners, to any further Russian aggression against Ukraine. The two leaders agreed on the importance of continuing to pursue diplomacy and deterrence in response to Russia’s military build-up on Ukraine’s borders,” according to the White House readout.

Russia invaded Ukraine on Thursday.

Joe Biden left for his home in Delaware on Friday.
