11 House Republicans Led by Matt Gaetz Introduce “Ukraine Fatigue” Resolution to Halt US Military and Financial Aid to Ukraine

Description

Over the past year the United States has spent over $110 billion to secure the Ukrainian border from the Russian invasion. Over 200,000 Ukrainian soldiers are dead and millions have fled the war zone.

There are numerous reports that the US blocked attempts at peace in the region.

And there are also reports that it was the US and not Russia that blew up the Nord Stream Russian gas pipelines to Europe.

On Thursday 11 Republican lawmakers said ENOUGH!

A group of 11 Republican lawmakers called on the United States to halt additional military and financial aid to Ukraine.

The money the US taxpayers have sent there is not even audited. We have no idea where it all went!

U.S. Congressman Matt Gaetz (FL-01) today led a group of 11 lawmakers in calling for the United States to halt additional military and financial aid to Ukraine through the introduction of the “Ukraine Fatigue” Resolution. If passed, the Resolution would express through the sense of the House of Representatives that the United States must end its military and financial aid to Ukraine, and urges all combatants to reach a peace agreement.

Since the onset of the war last February, the United States has been the top contributor of military equipment and aid to Ukraine, sending over $110 Billion of taxpayer money to the Russia-Ukraine conflict, including an additional $2 Billion in aid announced on February 3rd.

Congressman Gaetz was joined by the following original co-sponsors on the “Ukraine Fatigue” Resolution: Reps. Andy Biggs (AZ-05), Lauren Boebert (CO-03), Paul Gosar (AZ-09), Marjorie Taylor Greene (GA-14), Anna Paulina Luna (FL-13), Thomas Massie (KY-04), Mary Miller (IL-15), Barry Moore (AL-02), Ralph Norman (SC-05), and Matt Rosendale (MT-02).

“President Joe Biden must have forgotten his prediction from March 2022, suggesting that arming Ukraine with military equipment will escalate the conflict to ‘World War III.’ America is in a state of managed decline, and it will exacerbate if we continue to hemorrhage taxpayer dollars toward a foreign war. We must suspend all foreign aid for the War in Ukraine and demand that all combatants in this conflict reach a peace agreement immediately,” Congressman Gaetz said.
