

A horrific prediction for 2030 (The Great Reset) (VIDEO 12 min)

Description

You have probably heard about The Great Reset, The Fourth Industrial Revolution and that infamous line “You will own nothing and be happy” that is being promoted by the World Economic Forum and its leader Klaus Schwab who some see as a man that is committed to improving the state of the world. But what does that actually look like? complete government control where the idea of privacy is completely gone and most importantly a path where our body is infused into a technological system like you will never believe
