

Biden Covid Czar Ashish Jha: “The Pandemic Is Not Over” (VIDEO)

Description

USA: Joe Biden’s Covid czar Ashish Jha on Sunday said the pandemic is not over.

ABC’s “This Week” host George Stephanopoulos asked Dr. Jha, “Is Covid still a crisis?”

“The pandemic is not over, as much as we all wish it were. We’re in much better shape than we were but we’ve got to keep plugging away at managing this virus and getting it under better control,” Dr. Jha said.

The Biden Regime will never let Covid go away.

Biden recently extended the federal travel mask mandate until May 3.

Dr. Fauci has been making the media rounds again telling Americans to brace for another spike in Covid cases.

Democrats in Philadelphia re-imposed the indoor mask mandate...just in time for the midterm elections.
