

Biden Makes Sign of the Cross During Florida Trip Promoting Abortion

Description

US : “Today, while President Joe Biden was in Florida for his abortion fearmongering tour, he invoked the sign of the cross during a speech calling for abortion on demand. Is abortion now a left-wing sacrament?” leading pro-life organization Susan B. Anthony Pro-Life America posted to X.

The president joined Fried for a small event with activists and union officials after making a 15-minute speech at Hillsborough Community College’s Dale Mabry campus. His speech with Fried was “much less on abortion than he did at the rally,” the Tampa Bay Times reported on the events.

“We’ve got a lot more work to do. We’ve built the strongest economy in the world. We’ve got to get inflation even further down,” Biden said, while later claiming that “Florida is in play nationally” and that “The momentum is clearly in our favor.”

Biden visited Florida specifically to galvanize voters before a six-week abortion limit takes effect next month. The Florida Supreme Court upheld the state’s 15-week abortion restriction earlier this month, which cleared the way for the six-week restriction to take effect.

At the same time, the Florida Supreme Court also allowed a proposed amendment that would enshrine the “right” to abortion in the state constitution to appear on the ballot in November.

After the two state Supreme Court decisions dropped, Democrats descended on the state, with Biden campaign manager Julie Chávez Rodríguez declaring Florida now a “winnable” state. Former President Donald Trump notably led the state by 370,000 votes in 2020.

Besides blaming former President Donald Trump for enabling the Florida law, Biden criticized his opponent for a recent decision from the Arizona Supreme Court upholding an 1864 law that restricts nearly all abortions, and an Alabama Supreme Court decision classifying embryos used in in vitro fertilization (IVF) as unborn babies.

“[Trump] says it’s up to the states, and this is all about state rights. But he is wrong. The Supreme Court was wrong. [Abortion] should be a constitutional right in the federal constitution,” Biden said.

Biden further claimed that Trump would sign a federal abortion ban into law if he is elected, despite the fact that Trump has said he believes the abortion issue should be left to individual states.

During his speech at the community college, Biden also mocked Trump for promoting Bibles.

“[Trump] described the Dobbs decision as a miracle. Maybe it’s coming from that Bible he’s trying to sell,” Biden said “I almost wanted to buy one to see what the hell’s in it.”
