

BREAKING EXCLUSIVE: Hunter Biden Was Receiving Classified State Department Briefings on Regular Basis – Used to Promote Biden Family Business

Description

Earlier today we reported on a Kash Patel op-ed on Daily Caller where he suggested that the recent revelations on Joe Biden's crimes with classified information all began with the Hunter Biden laptop.

After an interview on the Joe Hoft Show on TNT radio with John Paul Mac Isaac, this is beginning to make sense.

John Paul Mac Isaac is the heroic computer store owner whose life changed the day Hunter Biden walked into his store in Delaware requesting help with some laptops he had in tow. Mac Isaac offered to help Hunter but when Hunter never came back for the one laptop left with Mac Isaac, the laptop became Mac Isaac's. Soon after this, Joe Biden decided to run for President and Mac Isaac knew he was in possession of a hornet's nest.

After Hunter refused to come back and take possession of his laptop the ownership of the laptop became Mac Isaac's. At this point, Mac Isaac decided to see all that was on it. What a revelation he found.

Documents of all sorts were on the laptop as well as seedy pictures and videos and text messages downloaded from Hunter's phone.

Eventually, Mac Isaac handed the laptop over to the FBI after numerous attempts to have them come and get it. But Mac Isaac still had the backups from the laptop. They were his.

Mac Isaac was asked in the interview today if he had any thoughts after the recent revelations of the Bidens being in possession of top-secret classified documents. Mac Isaac noted that one item from the laptop struck him in particular. This is when Mac Isaac dropped a bomb.

Mac Isaac recently released his book on the story behind the Hunter Biden laptop. The book can be purchased here.

MY BATTLE to EXP

Mac Isaac said that one email, in particular, came to mind. He discusses this email in his book. The email was sent from Hunter Biden to his friend and fellow Board member at Burisma, Devon Archer. This is discussed in Mac Isaac's chapter on Burisma.

This document was shared by Miranda Devine in a recent New York Post article. She shared this document online.

This is the document noted by John Paul Mac Isaac.

We have determined that the information in this email sent from Hunter to Devon Archer is based on at least one classified US State Department briefing coming out of Eurasia. This is the same State Department group that oversees Ukraine.

Based on an XRVision review of the original Hunter Biden laptop, Hunter was receiving classified State Department briefings on a regular basis and was using this information to promote the Biden family business worldwide.

Mac Isaac was concerned with the end of the email where Hunter recommends getting phones that can't be easily traced. This implies that Hunter didn't want his and Archer's communications from being traced.

Mac Isaac was also concerned about the last few sentences in the email noted below:

We should also find a highly credible and discreet firm to provide due diligence and deep information for us on an ongoing basis. The kind of people that can get us information that's not available through a google search and some phone calls. We can use our own funds to pay for it and I'm sure your buddies down in Little Creek have some trusted independent contacts that do that kind of work.

18. The announcement of my guys upcoming travels should be characterized as part of our advice and thinking- but what he will say and do is out of our hands. In other words it could be a really good thing or it could end up creating too great an expectation. We need to temper expectations regarding that visit.

19. We need to ask for long term agreement and across the board participation. This is a huge step for us that could easily become very complicated. And if we are not protected financially regardless of the outcome we could find ourselves frozen out of a lot of current and future opportunities.

20. To that end they need to know in no uncertain terms that we will not and cannot intervene directly with domestic policy makers, and that we need to abide by FARA and any other US laws in the strictest sense across the board.

21. The contract should begin now- not after the upcoming visit of my guy. That should include a retainer in the range of 25k p/m w/ additional fees where appropriate for more in depth work to go to BSF for our protection. Complete separate from our respective deal board participation.

22. Buy a cell phone from a 7/11 or CVS tmrw and ill do the same.

This could be the break we have been waiting for if they really are smart enough to understand our long term value. If they are looking just use us until the storm passes then we risked far too much for far too little. We could be invaluable in expanding their operations outside UK by promoting their US partnerships and expertise- whether that's China, Mexico, other parts of the Black Sea, Poland etc

Finally, we need to have a plan on how we develop a corporate entity or LLP that allows us to draw on funds generated here to free us from existing (under-producing current commitments) and to build our own investment and expansion strategy. Maintaining the status quo is not an option. We can preserve our interest in the areas where minimal involvement is appropriate but should not get greedy and try to keep all the balls in the air that exist today. RCP, RSTP, BHRT all make sense and can co-exist and progress without our day to day oversight. But Advisors and the BD need a transition plan. I am assuming that by making this move it will require us to be traveling extensively and actually earning our keep. If that's not the case then we will know we are being used in a way that's not appropriate. BHRT will be our only other major time commitment (and Realty). But from my discussions with Jimmy I'm a little concerned that their strategy of marketing a soft commitment from BOC is not going to get the job done. We had assurances that the PRC money would come first and we would build on that. Right now I don't see that happening. If they want us in Beijing once a month and pitching this outside PRC we should be getting paid in advance just like every other team member that's getting a salary. We should be hiring people like Jim Lee to work east Asia and Australia and our new 3rd party marketer here in the states to do the heavy lifting if she is interested. We should also find someone of similar capabilities to do the same in Europe.

We should also find a highly credible and discreet firm to perform due diligence and deep information for us on an ongoing basis. The kind of people that can get us information that's not available through a google search and some phone calls. We can use our own funds to pay for it and I'm sure your buddies down in Little Creek have some trusted independent contacts that do that sort of work.

Thoughts?

Mac Isaac believes that when Hunter noted "highly credible and discreet firm to provide due diligence and deep information for us on an ongoing basis", he was referring to the CIA. When he refers to "Little Creek" he was referring to US Navy's Little Creek Amphibious Base located in or near Norfolk, Virginia.

Hunter might be saying to Devon Archer in this April 2014 email, to reach out to his friends who might know some contacts with the CIA to help us with Burisma.

It appears Hunter's hints were understood.

According to the Illustrated Primer, we see that Hunter and Devon Archer did find a CIA official to put on the Burisma Board – Joseph Cofer Black.

Black was a former CIA official who joined Burisma's Board in 2019. Black is also connected to Senator Mitt Romney having served as his advisor for national security on Romney's 2008 campaign as well as a special advisor for national security and foreign policy on Romney's 2012 failed Presidential campaign.

Joseph Cofer Black served as senior adviser for national security on Romney's 2008 presidential campaign and as a special adviser for national security and foreign policy on Romney's 2012 presidential campaign.

No wonder the Bidens and Mitt Romney hated President Trump – he was getting too close to their crimes. They had to get rid of him to keep the money flowing.
