Police are solving the lowest proportion of crimes as overall offences have hit a new high.

Only 5.4 per cent of all crimes reported to police were solved, equivalent to just over one in 20 offences.

Crime Hits Record High in England and Wales (VIDEO 3 min)

Description

UK: Crime in England and Wales has hit a record high, right as more police resources are devoted to investigating 'offensive' online speech.

What a coincidence!
