

Heads up! FBI, media allies now laying groundwork for 'dirty bomb' false flag incident that will be blamed on Trump's supporters

Description

USA: More evidence that the FBI is rotten to the core was revealed over the weekend following the agency's politicized raid on former President Donald Trump's Mar-a-Lago estate, proving once again how scared the deep state is that he will win the Oval Office again in 2024.

According to a report from CBS News, the FBI and the Department of Homeland Security appear to be laying the groundwork for a major false flag attack, with the outlet noting that both agencies are claiming that threats against them and their personnel have dramatically gone up since the Biden regime's raid.

"The FBI and DHS have observed an increase in threats to federal law enforcement and, to a lesser extent, other law enforcement and government officials following the FBI's recent execution of a search warrant in Palm Beach, Florida," says a joint bulletin. "These threats are occurring primarily online and across multiple platforms, including social media sites, web forums, video sharing platforms, and image boards. The FBI and DHS would like to ensure that law enforcement, court, and government personnel are aware of the range of threats and criminal and violent incidents."

The bulletin even goes on to make a wild claim about a possibility of a nuclear explosion.

It warns that "the FBI and DHS have observed an increase in violent threats posted on social media against federal officials and facilities, including a threat to place a so-called dirty bomb in front of FBI Headquarters and issuing general calls for 'civil war' and 'armed rebellion.'"

The bulletin warned the threats are "specific in identifying proposed targets, tactics, or weaponry."

Then, of course, two of the most corrupt agencies in the bloated federal government tied it all back to Trump.

"Since 8 August 2022, the FBI and DHS have identified multiple articulated threats and calls for the targeted killing of judicial, law enforcement, and government officials associated with the Palm Beach search, including the federal judge who approved the Palm Beach search warrant,” it adds. “The FBI and DHS have also observed the personal identifying information of possible targets of violence, such as home addresses and identification of family members, disseminated online as additional targets.”

The bulletin went on to cite the bozo in Ohio, “gunman” Ricky Shiffer, who tried to enter the FBI’s Cincinnati Field Office using a nail gun.

“On 11 August 2022, Ricky Shiffer, Jr., wearing a technical vest and armed with an AR-style rifle and a nail gun, attempted to forcibly enter the FBI’s Cincinnati Field Office. When uniformed officers responded to Shiffer’s attempt to break a glass barrier, he fled the scene,” the bulletin said.

“A pursuit ensued, and Shiffer entered a standoff with FBI and law enforcement officers after firing multiple shots at responding officers from the Ohio State Highway Patrol (OSHP). After a prolonged standoff, OSHP, with FBI SWAT support, attempted to arrest Shiffer, resulting in his death,” it added.

Some ‘threat.’

“As a result of recent activities, we assess that potential targets of DVE violence moving forward could include law enforcement, judicial officials, individuals implicated in conspiracy theories and perceived ideological opponents who challenge their worldview,” the joint bulletin went on. “Drivers that could escalate the threat environment include possible future law enforcement or legal actions against individuals associated with the Palm Beach search, statements by public officials which incite violence, high profile successful DVE attacks that inspire copycats, or the emergence of additional conspiracy theories.”

“The threats we have observed, to date, underscore that DVEs may view the 2022 midterm election as an additional flashpoint around which to escalate threats against perceived ideological opponents, including federal law enforcement personnel,” the bulletin added.

The groundwork is being laid here to launch another false flag attack that will be used by the anti-Trump deep state regime to take out the former president once and for all as well as his supporters.
