

Biden 'Regrets' Calling Laken Riley's Illegal Invader Killer an 'Illegal'

Description

US : Joe Biden told MSNBC that he regrets calling Laken Riley's alleged murderer an "illegal" during the State of the Union address, despite the fact that the Venezuelan national charged with her killing in Georgia is in fact an illegal and was released from custody by federal and local authorities alike multiple times, rather than being sent back to his failed country of origin.

In an interview with MSNBC that aired on Saturday, Joe Biden insisted that illegals should be called "undocumented" as he groveled to open borders ideology and the illegal invaders who are slaughtering Americans, even saying that "they built the country."

"During your response to [Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene's] heckling of you, you used the word 'illegal' when talking about the man who allegedly killed Laken Riley," MSNBC interviewer Jonathan Capehart said to Biden.

"Undocumented," Biden said. "An undocumented person. I shouldn't have used illegal. It's undocumented."

After complaining that President Trump speaks too harshly about the illegal aliens invading America and with drugs and violence and murder, Biden insisted that he "treat any, any, any of these people with disrespect."

"Look, they built the country," Biden claimed. "They're the reason our economy is growing."
