

Is A US Civil War On The Horizon?

Description

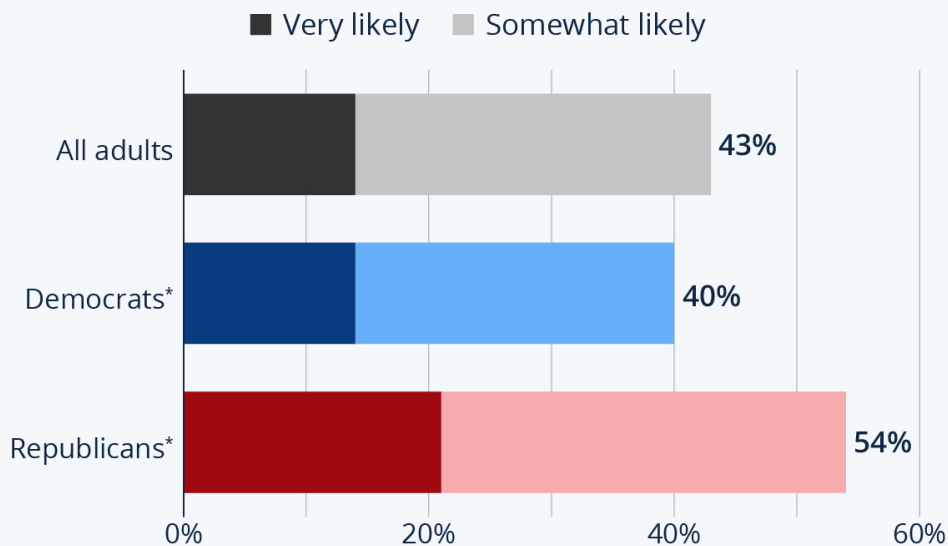

USA: In a recent response to the FBI's recovering of classified documents from Donald Trump's Mar-a-Lago residence, South Carolina senator Lindsey Graham predicted "riots in the streets" if the former president is indicted over his retention of the materials after leaving the White House.

As Statista's Martin Armstrong notes, there have been rumblings of warning signs from some observers for some time that the U.S. could get dragged into a civil war if it continues on its route of growing political and social division – concerns only amplified in the wake of the January 6 storming of the Capitol.

By now, the impression that a civil war could be brewing has spread to the general public, and as a new Gallup poll indicates, to a large extent.

Is a U.S. Civil War on the Horizon?

Share of U.S. adults that say a civil war is likely in the next ten years, by political alignment

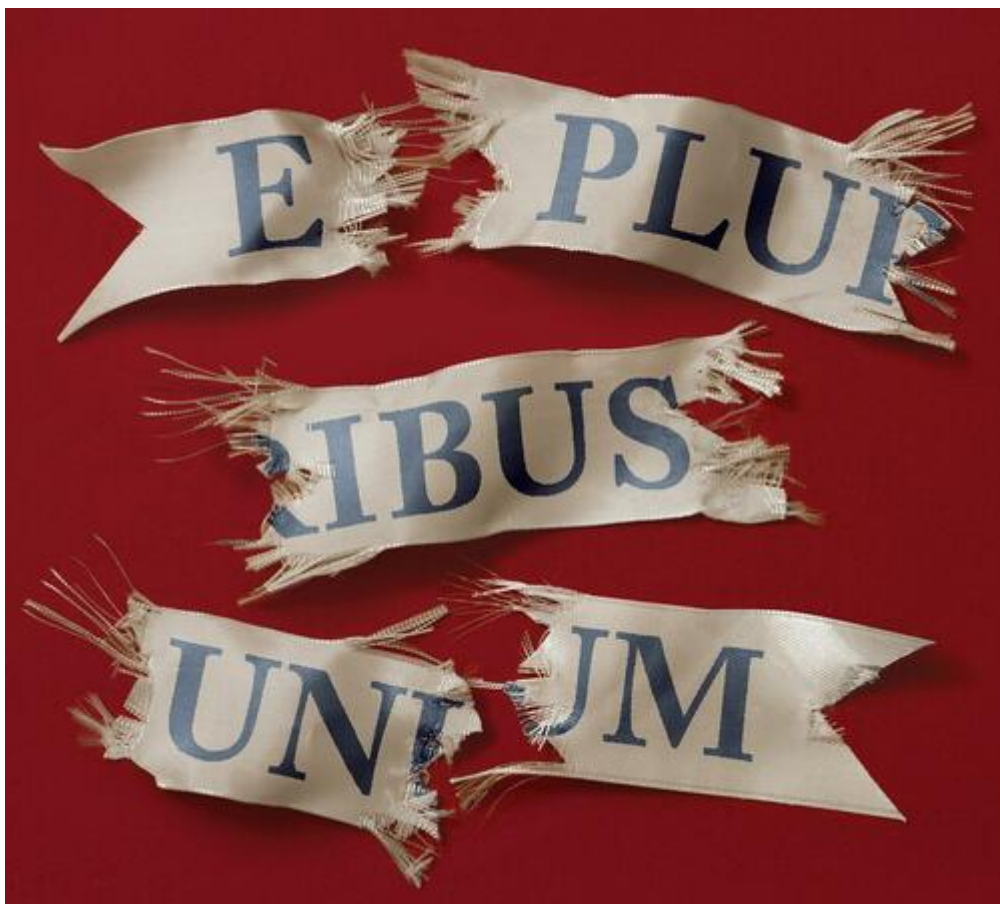

* Respondents identifying as 'strong' Democrats/Republicans
