

Justice Thomas's Wife Demands For The Stealing Of The 2020 Elections To Stop – But From The Wrong People!

Description

USA: She had the 'balls' to call President Trump's Chief of Staff and demand for the 2020 election results to be overturned in favor of the obvious winner, President Trump.

Yup. You read that right.

She sniffed the Dem's dirty work from afar.

The COVID situation and the death-jab have gotten out of control. Not to mention the international political disaster that is slipping right through Biden's hands.

I won't even talk about the gas.

And one person seems to be extremely concerned after the questionable results which came through in the elections in 2020!

That's Justice Clarence Thomas' wife Virginia, who reportedly sent many text messages to Trump's chief of staff Mark Meadows, demanding that he "stop the steal."

Here's more from TMZ.

"Virginia Thomas repeatedly contacted White House Chief of Staff Mark Meadows, pushing to have the 2020 presidential election results overturned.

She fired off a series of text messages in the weeks after the election, lobbying for a way to have Donald Trump declared the winner ... according to the Washington Post.

There were 29 messages between Virginia — aka Ginni — and Meadows. What's interesting — and troubling — is that the exchanges came at a time when Trump was crowing that he would go to the Supreme Court to invalidate the election results.

In a message one week after the election, she wrote, “Help This Great President stand firm, Mark!!! ... You are the leader, with him, who is standing for America’s constitutional governance at the precipice. The majority knows Biden and the Left is attempting the greatest Heist of our History.”

In another exchange, Meadows wrote, “This is a fight of good versus evil ... Evil always looks like the victor until the King of Kings triumphs. Do not grow weary in well-doing. The fight continues. I have staked my career on it. Well at least my time in DC on it.”
