Derek Fildebrant with the Western Standard is spelling out how truly despotic the government of Canada has become. With the declaration of the War Powers Act, Trudeau is declaring war against any Canadian that does not support the government's tyranny as it overtly commits Crimes Against Humanity against its own people.

The Canadian Armed Forces swore an Oath to defend the Charter of Rights, the Canadian Constitution and the Canadian People against all enemies, foreign and domestic. Which includes TRAITORS in government who are under the control of the World Economic Forum that are trying to bring about the "Great Reset".

If Canadian Soldiers take up arms against the Canadian People, and "Protected Persons" under the Geneva Conventions, they will be themselves committing War Crimes, which will one day be prosecuted.

They know this, so must, and will, side with We The People by honoring the Oath they SWORE to uphold

It is now the Duty of every Canadian to resist the governments tyranny
