KEN'S CORNER: The Deep State IS The Synagogue Of Satan

Commentary by TLB Contributing Writer: Ken LaRive

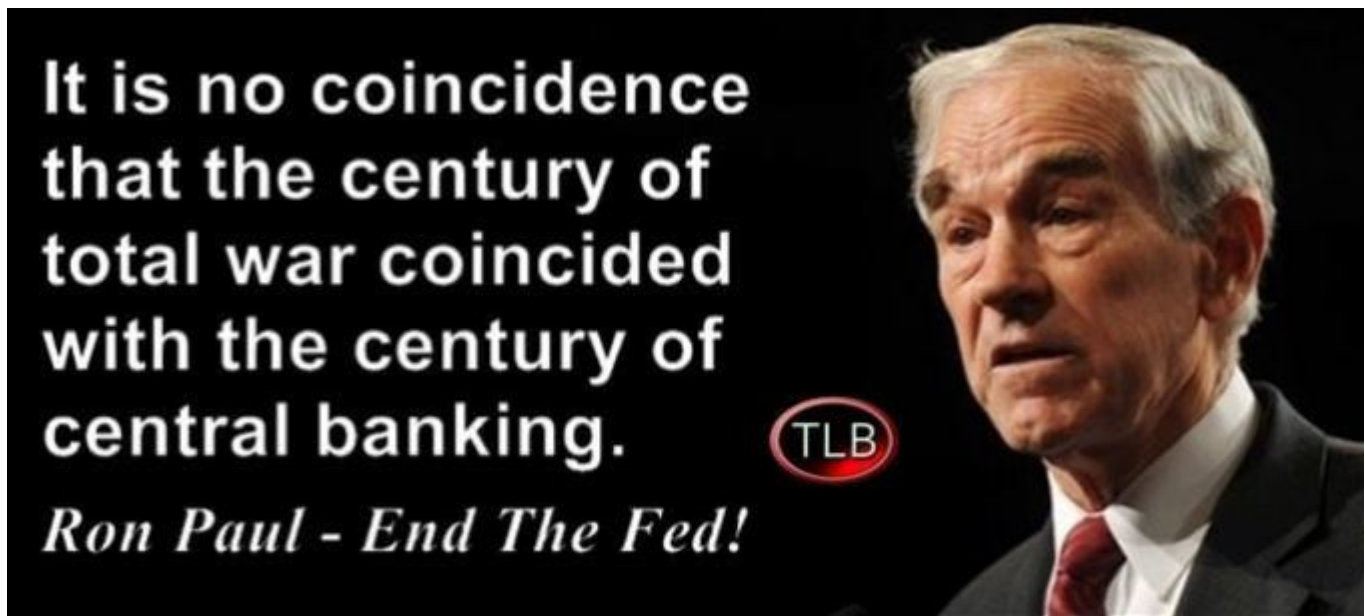

America has been at war for a very long time (literally centuries) with what is now defined, in this generation, as the "Deep State." Our Founding Fathers warned us to keep vigilant since the very conception of our Democratic Constitutional Republic, but over time, increment by increment, we have eroded to the Oligarchy we have today.

Our founders knew well the dangers these Central Bankers posed to our Liberty, as they knew well, by firsthand experience, the dominate control of the international banking cabals, and tyranny and abject slavery of the spirit of Church-State... they fled from every corner of the world under a well remembered duress... for the promise of Liberty here in America.

Every generation fought back, by degree and decree, attempting to see and control the claw that forever tried to dominate and control them, and though we want to believe that our Republic and its Constitution is intact, nothing is further from the truth. Most Americans are slaves, spiritual as well as tangible, and have long forgotten the difference between Freedom and Liberty, a Democracy and Constitutional Law, with a constant dependence on a Big Brother Oligarchy who magnanimously grants the crumbs off their table. Most all are in denial, but never-the-less, it is true...

We die in wars they orchestrate for profit, without knowing why, and our heritage, our national treasure, and the future of our children as debt slaves, insures their continuation as our self proclaimed masters. But know this, one powerful, and all-encompassing element may give us solace... our civil Liberty is not granted by men. Our Constitutional rights were given to us by our God, and that is all the strength our souls will need to overcome. Liberty was defined when God created our soul, with a consciousness, and a will that was free to choose one's own destiny. It was a great and powerful gift, and one that can sustain us now in our final hour.

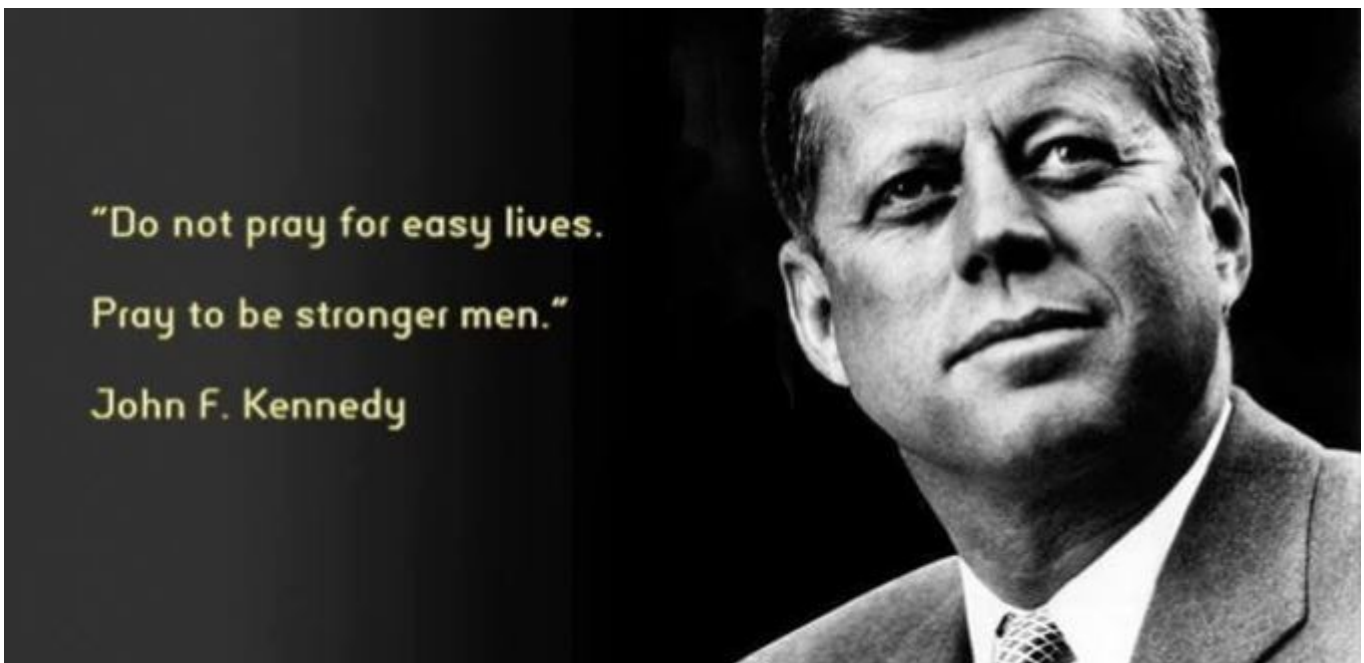

Today, there is a resurgence of the Liberty Movement, and men are again demanding and seeking TRUTH. The workings of this Rothschild conglomerate cartel of International bankers, and conspiring international corporate cabals are being exposed, and like Pandora's Box, the lid is blown wide open.

There are a growing number of Patriots who are seeing that the dangers we face here in America are dire... They have come to realize that what our founders suffered and died to give us is spat upon, maligned and shredded, and they (we), want it back... But, as our founders warned, they know that history has never returned Liberty without a fight, and that these powers are so great, with so many tentacles, their threats to destroy us are indeed very real. In fact, they told us emphatically that once Liberty is lost, only bloodshed will get it back. It is a revelation to note here that even Jesus Christ warned us, as Christians. He called it, The Synagogue of Satan, where fake Jews would vie to take even our souls. Look around and see that the world they have created for us, is his words exactly... they own us, lock, stock and barrel, and we are not allowed to even say their name out loud. Say it, and you will feel that twinge of fear and loathing in your gut, and ask yourself: who put it there? Your Master put it there, and it is taboo to even think to name them... That fear is the death of Liberty, and the manifestation of your slavery.

I have no doubt that what you will see below will indeed scare you to death. It is dark, evil, violent and without honor or justice. It is a tyranny called Progressive/Marxist/Zionist Communism, and though we thought that every war was fought to demolish these ideologies, just the opposite is true. They were fought to expand their influence, their power to control and manipulate the entire world for their carpetbagger ownership.

They are formidable enemies, and no President stated what they are better than our last Liberal President, JFK, who said: "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country." His death opened a void that Marxist Progressives hoped to fill, and that sentiment was never once uttered again from the Left. And as their government influence grew, our Civil Liberty died, along with freedom of the press, and their media propaganda fills our minds with garbage. We are owned by them, we are their cattle, and as they control mega corporations that thrive on war, we die in one war after another... paid for with money they print out of thin air... as debt. They revel in the knowledge that they control our past by rewriting our history, influence our lives with constant overt distraction in the here and now, and hold the reigns of our destiny by a debt to them that can never be paid... from 6 trillion in 2007 to over 31 trillion today. That is our future, debt slaves, and if you don't see the relevance in this, you do not deserve the precious gift of America.

So, what can we do? Well, there is only one thing I can suggest, and that is, know who you are now, and from there, question what you were supposed to be. Learn, by demanding TRUTH, and try everything you can to find it. This life, this America, is on loan to you from your grandchildren, and you should take that very seriously. You are entrusted to deliver that original dream to them, and every generation has to be vigilant. We have a President, President Trump, who wants to return our Country back to the people, but before that can happen we must have the ability to manage it. That sir, comes from several profound things, Truth, and Volition... and both are in very short supply.

We do have the blood of our ancestors in our veins, that is true, but that is not the key to our Liberty from Tyranny. They had a standard lacking in most all of us today, and I propose that the difference between them and us is our dependency, our lack of responsibility for self, and it is called a slave mentality. What can be more horrible but for a slavery to be voluntary, polishing chains in denial with the hope of a free lunch.

Perhaps, if I could convince, just a few, to open the door to a garden that grew in the minds and hearts of our founding fathers, perhaps you might realize that there is something greater than ourselves, something worthy to die for... perhaps you may find the solace to live it... a light you so long for would fill you... and you would see a TRUE reason for being, and be inspired.

Because without something greater than yourself to die for, you have very little to live for. Perhaps that one profound element is what is lacking? It is called, a reason for being. A slave has no reason for being. He does what he is told without question. You will know the magnitude, the extent of your Liberty... by the number of questions you can formulate from the greatest of all amendments, the first amendment... Ask yourself: Can you state what you are thinking out loud?

I hope you will let me guide you to the men who have changed me, motivated me... guided me... men who lived and died in service to us, their children... Lets start with John F. Kennedy, and Dwight D. Eisenhower, but there are many more.... I hope that it will stimulate in you that profound element needed to regain our Liberty, and free us from the bonds of Tyranny that only our Constitutional Republic can give.

The Kennedy Secret Society Speech ...

The Eisenhower (Military Industrial Complex) Speech ...

It has been about twelve years since I first listened to these, and have often wondered why it was never taught to me in my seventeen years of formal education. Now, retired, I study history and politics with astonishment, and a bit fearful too, in retrospect. I know that an essay such as this does not stimulate the modern mind of memes and immediacy, and so I will cut this short... It is my greatest hope that it will stimulate further inquiry, and so I would like to point out several directions you will need in the battle that will surely come...

Watch what the CFR and the IMF do... Pay attention to what the UN does and what the Trilateral Commission says, and compare it to what they do... Keep tabs on all who are inducted into such groups as the Skull and Bones Society, and watch out for such catch phrases like "sustainability"; UN Agenda 21/30 and "polar vortex." Question and validate everything the mass media says is true, and monitor your child's homework, reading everything they are taught. Question the constant attempts to spread hysteria about 'global warming' 'climate change' and study what so-called scientists were advocating 20 years ago with 'the coming ice age'. Yes, we are bombarded from all sides... the list is long, convoluted, and never ends... and it is designed that way to distract you from what can only be described as the men behind the curtain...

Edgar Hoover has been smeared for things that I can not disprove, but I will quote him now and leave all who read this to research these thoughts in search of the truth. The quote:

"The individual is handicapped by coming face-to-face with a conspiracy so monstrous that he can not believe it exists. The American mind has simply not come to a realization of the evil that has been introduced into our midst. It rejects even the assumption that human creatures could espouse a philosophy which must destroy all that is good and descent..” Very long story here, but to sum it up, it’s simply a push by the shadow elites who really claim ownership of this planet to force God and morality out of our society in order to destroy our common bonds and make us all feel alone and helpless in order for them to put into place a one world, communist style dictatorship, wherein, all of our rights to property, life, and liberty will no longer exist. In this Christian man’s opinion, if this were to succeed, the result would be, not millions, but BILLIONS of innocent men, women, and children systematically murdered. Believe it, that is history unvarnished...

Please put all thoughts of national borders and religious beliefs of societies aside, as some ultra rich elites pull these many strings in this world to boggle the mind. It is all about power, and control... Forget your beliefs in the paradigm you grew up with, and try to face the cold hard truth. Historical events don’t just happen, they are made to happen. Forget what you were taught in school and for those of you who believe that published books always speak the truth, you really need to grow up and understand that the powers that be are not angelic entities that have societies’ best interests in mind...

They are not content to play golf and polo and sail in yachts, these people are truly drunk on their own power and will not stop. They simply do not know how to stop, and the only way they will stop will be when they suck us all dry, to the very last... God bless you, and I hope with all of my heart that we can unify, and survive. Good luck... and remember, Liberty can not exist with out TRUTH. Demand that... in spite of the fact that never the history of the world has a country been able to self-govern. Men have a herd mentality, and need guidance... perhaps, if we can maintain our Republic, we can again drop the shackles that bind us...

Final thought ...

Donald Trump faced the same enemy...
