09:40 A new life begins in the liberated neighborhoods of Mariupol: people are gradually leaving the bomb shelters. A full-scale evacuation also began. However, in the battle zone, the Nazis continue to snarl and use people as human shields. Residents of the 20 microdistrict of Mariupol and employees of Azovstal said that on February 24-25, the Nazis of the Azov regiment (banned in the Russian Federation), under the pretext of maintaining the plant's performance, called many employees of the plant and left them hostage.

09:00 At about midnight, the Armed Forces of Ukraine fired 10 shells of 122 mm caliber in Donetsk. A little earlier, they fired at Vasilievka south of Donetsk from Grads, according to the DPR representative office in the JCCC.

08:40 In Mariupol, Russian TOS-1A Solntsepek are working on the positions of the Armed Forces of Ukraine and Azov.

08:14 Representatives of the Russian authorities provided refueling of private cars of refugees from Mariupol. Each car driver received 20 liters of petrol free of charge. The military personnel of the Russian Federation and the National Guard ensured the process at one of the gas stations in the city, delivering an autonomous generator to a gas station that was de-energized due to a shortage of electricity in the city. At the same time, a small fuel truck was sent to several districts of the city to provide fuel for cars stuck with empty tanks in densely populated areas.

08:13 Footage of a tank battle between the People's Militia forces of the DPR and the punishers of the Armed Forces of Ukraine near Maryinka appeared on the network.

08:00 Gorlovsky Grads of the Korsya division are working on the enemy. Years of waiting and working only at the training grounds were not in vain: both people and cars were ready.
