

‘My Son Hunter’ Director Robert Davi: ‘This Is a Story the FBI Should Be All Over and They’re Nowhere to Be Seen’

Description

USA: “This is a story that the FBI should be all over, and they’re nowhere to be seen,” My Son Hunter director Robert Davi said about the Hunter Biden corruption scandals during a panel discussion Thursday evening on Truth Social following the release of the film’s full theatrical trailer.

“This is the biggest story in America as far as I’m concerned because the corruption has been kept from the public,” Davi added, comparing the Hunter Biden scandals that formed the basis of My Son Hunter to the FBI Abscam investigation that was the subject of the film American Hustle.

His remarks came during a panel discussion on Truth Social hosted by former California congressman and current Truth Social CEO Devin Nunes that also included Donald Trump Jr.; Government Accountability Institute President, Breitbart Senior Contributor, and bestselling author of Red Handed: How American Elites Get Rich Helping China Win Peter Schweizer; and Breitbart Editor-in-Chief Alex Marlow.

My Son Hunter, which marks Breitbart’s expansion into film distribution, was a crowdfunded project inspired by the investigative reporting of Peter Schweizer and Breitbart News about the Biden family’s corruption—reporting which, as the film’s director Robert Davi noted, the media and Big Tech sought to censor during the 2020 election.

“No one was talking about the Bidens—until recently now the New York Times says it’s okay,” Davi said. “This [film] is I think the first peek that lifts the skirts, so to speak from the Bidens to show people in a humorous way. It’s like the laptop exploded onto film for me.”

Panel host Devin Nunes made a pointed joke highlighting the fact that members of the U.S. intelligence community were among the driving forces behind censoring the 2020 election's media coverage of Hunter Biden by declaring that all reporting about his laptop was "Russian disinformation."

The panel was quick to note the Justice Department and the FBI's disparate handling of the Trump and Biden families, as evidenced by the treatment of Hunter Biden.

"I've investigated corruption for decades on going after Republicans and Democrats," bestselling investigative author Schweizer said. "The treatment that the Bidens and received compared with the treatment of the Trumps, there's absolutely no comparison."

When asked by Nunes how Biden family corruption compared to past political corruption, Schweizer called it “absolutely the worst that I’ve seen.”

“You literally have the most powerful family in the United States taking money from our sworn rivals’ and taking it from four businessmen who are linked with Chinese intelligence,” Schweizer stated.

“If I was Hunter Biden, I’d be in jail,” Donald Trump Jr. said. “You know, I’m probably the most deposed-slash-subpoenaed human being/civilian in the history of the U.S. Government. They’ve done countless hours, nothing there—literally nothing or you would have heard about it by now, and I’d be in jail.”

Trump explained that it’s this disparate treatment that has inspired his own political activism and his hope for the success of My Son Hunter.

“I’m just trying to be on the leading edge of the culture wars because we’ve sat back for decades and allowed [the left] to assume control over every major institution in our country,” Trump said. “Even the U.S. military, in terms of leadership, has gone woke [and] the FBI, as evidenced by the hostage-rescue team raiding Mar-a-Lago just last week against their political enemies simply for having the guts to call out the corruption at the FBI. We then get to get lectured sanctimoniously from Christopher Wray—‘How dare we not respect the FBI’—when it seems like they haven’t done anything to deserve that respect. When you’re talking about forging FISA warrants, lying before Congress, the people who did that, whether that’s Andy McCabe or Peter Strzok, they maintain their jobs, they get contributorships at CNN and MSNBC, there’s virtually no penalty.”

“And there seems to be also no consequence [for] the FBI for having every major attacker in recent U.S. history on their radar while they let them slip through the cracks, probably because they checked off a couple of woke boxes [and] therefore the FBI would refuse to prosecute. But if your grandmother was within somewhere of 500 miles of Washington, DC, on January 6, I’m sure they got a knock on the door,” Trump added.

“What’s happening in our country is a disgrace. The politicization of our institutions and the outright corruption at this point needs to be called out,” Trump said. “And I think we’ve actually hit a tipping point. I think Breitbart has done a great job of highlighting these things. We created Truth [Social] with Devin to be able to point out these things.”

Trump sees My Son Hunter as “part of the tip of the spear” in this conservative fight back.

“People have had enough, people understand exactly what’s going on, and they’re building their own. They’re taking on the power structures that have been so heavily dominated by the left,” Trump said, adding that conservatives are now running for local school boards because they’ve witnessed the danger “when they ceded it the purple haired lunatic with no children.”

“The one thing I can say that’s been great about Joe Biden and this administration is it’s been so disastrous that the people who have been agnostic [who] have been too busy to get involved in politics or thought they were too busy to get involved in politics... they’re involved! They’re motivated, they’re watching, and they’re getting it,” Trump said. “I think we’re creating an entire new economy, as we speak, with all of the things that are going on. And this [film] is going to be part of the tip of the spear of that. So, I want it to be successful because I want people to understand just how important this is. We’re fighting for our values. We’re fighting for our country, and we’re just fighting for the future that we want to leave our children. With my five young kids, I want to make sure I leave them in America they recognize.”

Trump’s comments put Davi in mind of the famous Paddy Chayefsky film Network, in which the character played by Peter Finch delivers “one of the most magnificent speeches and prophetic... when he says, ‘I’m as mad as hell and I’m not going to take this anymore.’”

“That’s what’s happening across America,” Davi said, noting the absurdity that “parents [are] going to a school board and the FBI says they’re terrorists.”

My Son Hunter—which is available for pre-order now and will be available for download and streaming starting September 7—stars Laurence Fox (Victoria, Inspector Lewis, The Professor and the Madman) as Hunter Biden; Gina Carano (The Mandalorian, Dead Pool, Heist) as a Secret Service Agent; and John James (Dynasty) as Joe Biden.
