

Red state lawmakers tired of Biden's left-wing tyranny now openly calling for nullification of federal agents, rules

Description

USA: Joe Biden campaigned on 'unifying' our country, but during his tenure, he and those who are really running his regime have proven the age-old adage that the Democratic left always means the opposite of what they say.

The regime has essentially partnered with the Democrat-controlled Congress to go after former President Donald Trump, his allies on Capitol Hill, and his supporters, using the Jan. 6 riot — which was really just a false flag attack — as justification.

And in the process, they are violating every norm, every standard procedure, and even some laws.

The situation has now become critical after Biden's political hack at the Justice Department, Attorney General Merrick Garland, authorized the FBI to raid Trump's Mar-a-Lago residence in Florida earlier this week on the flimsy claim that he stole some classified materials when he left office after being cheated out of a second term.

Now, a growing chorus of Republicans and red state leaders are standing up and saying: No more. Nullification appears to be their order of the day.

In Arizona, for instance, Trump-backed GOP gubernatorial nominee Kari Lake has issued a statement pledging to ban federal agents from her state if she wins in November.

"This is one of the darkest days in American history: the day our Government, originally created by the people, turned against us," she said in a statement.

"This illegitimate, corrupted Regime hates America and has weaponized the entirety of the Federal Government to take down President Donald Trump,” she added.

“Our Government is rotten to the core. These tyrants will stop at nothing to silence the Patriots who are working hard to save America. This is an incredibly horrendous abuse of power. If we accept it, America is dead,” Lake continued. “We will not accept it. The 10th Amendment can and will save our Republic and the road to stripping the Feds of power travels right through Arizona. We must fire the Federal Government. As Governor, I will fight these Tyrants with every fiber of my being.

“America — dark days lie ahead for us. May God protect us and save our Country,” she added.

Meanwhile, Florida state Rep. Anthony Sabatini, a Trump-backed candidate who is running for the U.S. Congress, made a similar statement.

“It’s time for us in the Florida Legislature to call an emergency legislative session & amend our laws regarding federal agencies Sever all ties with DOJ immediately Any FBI agent conducting law enforcement functions outside the purview of our State should be arrested upon sight,” he said.

Even Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis (R) was outraged.

“The raid of MAL is another escalation in the weaponization of federal agencies against the Regime’s political opponents, while people like Hunter Biden get treated with kid gloves. Now the Regime is getting another 87k IRS agents to wield against its adversaries? Banana Republic,” he tweeted.

Natural News founder and editor Mike Adams, the Health Ranger, touched on the overall political impact of the obviously politically motivated raid when he wrote that it “has galvanized conservative America while sparking widespread outrage at the lawlessness and criminality of the illegitimate Biden regime, an enemy occupying force that claims to rule America but is actually run by criminal tyrants and fraudsters who rigged the 2020 to steal political power from the people.”
