

The CDC have hidden Covid-19 data and committed Fraud because they believe the public to be stupid

Description

USA: The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) has admitted that large portions of data about Covid-19 and the Covid-19 injections are not being published because the world might “misinterpret” them.

Dr. Robert Malone is warning that this amounts to fraud.

It has been almost two full years since the alleged pandemic began, and only a “tiny fraction” of the data collected by the CDC has been released for public consumption.

It was The New York Times, of all sources, that ran a big story on this, revealing that much of the withheld information could have been used by state and local officials to get the virus under control.

“The CDC is a political organization as much as it is a public health organization,” said Samuel Scarpino, the managing director of pathogen surveillance at the Rockefeller Foundation’s Pandemic Prevention Institute.

“The steps that it takes to get something like this released are often well outside of the control of many of the scientists that work at the CDC.”

Translated by Dr. Malone, what Scarpino is essentially saying is that the CDC has been lying to the public about Covid-19.

“Basically, a non-governmental spokesperson for the ‘official’ public health scientific community is throwing Rochelle Walensky under the bus, and saying that the politicians forced us to commit scientific fraud by withholding key data,” Dr. Malone writes.

“The Global Summit Doctors and other brave medical practitioners who have stood up to the lies and tyranny – who have been harassed, jobs lost, medical licenses lost, smeared and libeled are right. The data are being withheld.”

The Global Summit Doctors have been sounding the alarm about all this for quite some time, only to be labelled as “conspiracy theorists” by the establishment.

But it turns out they were right, and chances are there are still many more revelations to come that will fully deconstruct the myth that the CDC, or any other government agency for that matter, is working in the best interests of the general public.

“The CDC is using cumulative data from the beginning of the vaccine roll-out in early 2021 to prop up the lie that these vaccines are effective against Omicron,” Dr. Malone explains. “The CDC is clearly hiding the data about safety.”

Dr. Malone says that if the CDC had released proper, age-stratified data for covid, it would be clear as day that Trump’s Operation Warp Speed injections are “not necessary” for most Americans.

“If the vaccine risk ratio of those vaccinated and hospitalized were published for Omicron – it would be clear that the vaccine benefit is not observed,” he adds.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is also complicit, as it still has not revealed what the efficacy rate is for “booster” shots in children. This is in spite of the fact that the FDA promised to do this.

“They have not released the safety data,” Dr. Malone says. “They have withheld the safety data on the vaccines for children and adults. This must stop. We are deep into outright Scientific Fraud territory.”
