

Tucker Carlson fired from Fox for calling out Big Pharma advertisers' "deadly" vaccines, says Robert F. Kennedy Jr.

Description

USA: Weighing in on Tucker Carlson's recent firing from Fox News, 2024 presidential hopeful Robert F. Kennedy Jr. blamed "pharma advertisers" for pushing "deadly and ineffective" vaccines that Carlson refused to promote and even blasted as dangerous and unnecessary.

In Kennedy's view, Carlson "crossed a red line" in his April 19 monologue, during which he "broke TV's two biggest rules."

"Tucker told the truth about how greedy Pharma advertisers controlled TV news content, and he lambasted obsequious newscasters for promoting jabs they knew to be lethal and worthless," Kennedy wrote in a tweet.

"Fox just demonstrated the terrifying power of Big Pharma," he added.

During said monologue, Carlson openly chastised the pharmaceutical industry and the media, including his own network, for taking in hundreds of millions of dollars from Big Pharma companies in exchange for "shill[ing] for their sketchy products on the air."

"And as they did that," Carlson went on to state, "they maligned anyone who was skeptical of those products. At the very least, this was a moral crime. It was disgusting, but it was universal. It happened across the American news media. They all did it."

Natural News* was censored and blacklisted for the same reasons: we call out Big Pharma and its puppets

With guns blazing, Carlson continued to point out that the vast majority of everything “in public life is corrupt,” stating that there are “too many to count.”

“The question is: who is telling the truth?” Carlson further said. “There are not many of those.”

“One of them is Robert F. Kennedy Jr. Robert Kennedy knew early that the covid vaccines were both ineffective and potentially dangerous, and he said so in public to the extent he was allowed. Science has since proven Robert F. Kennedy Jr. right. Unequivocally right.”

Instead of being rewarded for his honesty, Kennedy was vilified and censored, just like Carlson now has been at the hands of Fox, ironically enough. Kennedy, and now Carlson himself, have both been censored for daring to criticize media advertisers, which are largely dominated by pharmaceutical industry interests.

“He was censored because he dared to criticize their advertisers, the news media called Bobby Kennedy a Nazi, and then they attacked his family, but he kept doing it,” Carlson revealed in his last segment before getting axed by Fox.

“He was not intimidated and we were glad he wasn’t. This is one of those moments when it’s nice to have a truth teller around. It’s helpful because suddenly the stakes are very high.”

Keep in mind that Natural News, Brighteon, and other affiliated platforms have been blacklisted and censored for years for doing the same things Carlson and Kennedy have: telling the truth.

“Tucker makes news with his monologues,” tweeted conservative commentator Matt Walsh in response to Carlson’s firing from Fox. “People talk about them.”

“Nobody talks about Sean Hannity monologues. Fox is insane for letting that kind of cultural relevance go.”

Paul Joseph Watson of Summit news tweeted much more simply that “There’s now literally no reason to watch Fox News.”

“Well, there’s still the Pfizer commercials,” responded someone else jokingly about how Fox News is little more than Big Pharma news – which, by the way, we have been warning you about for years.
