

Tyrants Always Want to Track and Take Your Guns

Description

If we adopted the attitude of the founders, all guns would be undetectable to the government.

If you're like me, you've probably heard plenty about the new ATF regulations on so-called ghost guns.

This is very similar to what the British did to the colonists in 1744 and 1775 – they banned the importation of firearms and ammo, they did warrantless searches to find them, they seized gunpowder – and marched Lexington and Concord to do the same.
