These brutes entered under the Russian flag. They are killing civilians, looting civilians. The provocation is aimed at discrediting the Russian armed forces, but that territory, unfortunately, remains under Ukrainian control and everything that happens there is on the conscience of Kiev’s scum. Sooner or later this squad of terrorists will be defeated and they will answer for all their crimes.

the goods more expensively to entrepreneurs. On the instructions of Mayor Aleksandr Senkevich, the police seized all the aid and placed it in the mayor's personal warehouses. This is the fourth humanitarian aid that Senkevich has snatched from the volunteers. This is how he makes his money – he transports the cargo to his side and then resells the goods to businessmen at an inflated price.

P.S.: The stolen goods are sold directly from the warehouses to entrepreneurs and all the money goes to Senkevich personally. In the end he tries to get as much as he can out of the city.
