

UKRAINIAN ATTACK KILLED ENTIRE FAMILY IN BELGOROD REGION

Description

WORLD : On March 18, Ukrainian strike killed a family in the Belgorod region. As a result of the Ukrainian attack, a civilian house was destroyed in the village of Nikolskoe located near the border.

Ukrainian shell destroyed the private house, where the entire family was killed. After the shell struck the building, there were 5 civilians inside. Four of them were killed. The bodies of the grandmother, mother, father and the young 17-year-old boy were discovered under the rubbles.

A baby girl miraculously survived the attack. The baby was heavily wounded and was taken to the hospital. Doctors are fighting for her life.

“The terrorist act by the Armed Forces of Ukraine claimed the lives of almost an entire family: grandmother, mother, her husband and son were killed. This is an irreparable loss for the entire Belgorod region!

I express my sincere condolences to the family and friends of this family. Although I understand that no words can assuage this grief.” – the governor commented on the attack.

Kiev/NATO forces intensified artillery shelling, drone strikes and began ground attacks on the Russian border Belgorod and Kursk regions on the eve of the presidential elections in the Russian Federation.

The elections ended but Ukrainian neo-Nazis are yet to stop terrorist attacks on Russian civilians. As a result of the attacks on the Russian border, Kiev lost about 2,000 servicemen, including fighters of the Special Operations Forces, as well as a lot expensive military equipment, including helicopters. Amid heavy losses in senseless attacks, the terrorist Kiev regime continues bloody shelling of civilians.
