

Ukrainian Soldiers Starting to Give Up?

Description

JEA: Ukrainian soldiers should have given up a long time ago. What will Ukraine eventually gain when Russia obliterates much of the Ukrainian army? We can postulate that Russia will not allow NATO to get the upper hand.

In that sense, Russia will triumph over NATO and the United States. The best thing Ukrainian soldiers can do now is to give up their allegiance to the Jewish oligarchs who are desperately trying to destroy much of Europe and America.
