

VACCINE VIOLENCE: If you want to stop deaths from “shootings,” ban vaccines, not guns

Description

USA: We must consider banning COVID-19 vaccines that are causing mass casualties and death, because if the rationale is based on the tools and devices used to murder mass numbers of innocent humans, then the COVID “clot shot” jabs certainly need to be the priority. Where’s the proof? Let’s start this off with one of the largest life insurance companies in the country, One America, that just paid out 163 percent more in 2021 for “no-pandemic-related” deaths for working folks ages 18 to 64. That’s $6 billion over and above the usual claims.

Lincoln National, another insurance monster in the US, also reported that same increase in death benefits paid out for group life insurance policies (for working adults) the same year, as public records requests reveal. And the elephant in the room? You guessed it... COVID-19 “vaccines,” a.k.a. “clot shot” death jabs. It’s the “shooting” of prions into bodies, not bullets, that’s the culprit of all this genocide. We need to ban vaccines, not guns. Let’s take a closer look at the numbers.

Highest death rates in the history of the life insurance business as “Sudden Adult Death Syndrome” sweeps across the USA

The largest life insurance companies in the USA paid out triple in death benefits for 2021 compared to 2019 and 2020, up from around $500 million to $1.4 billion. As soon as the so-called COVID-19 “vaccines” were introduced, the death data skyrocketed right off the charts. If you do the math, we normally see about 7500 deaths per day in the USA, but thanks to the clot shots, that total has surpassed 12,000 per day, translating to about 1.7 million EXTRA deaths per year that are “unexplained.” Again, these are not COVID-caused deaths or even COVID-related. Welcome to the Sudden Adult Death Syndrome pandemic caused by injecting billions of prions into humans, and calling it “vaccination.”

Though the pandemic certainly increased the number of deaths, there’s still over one billion dollars in paid death benefits that can’t be explained by normal circumstances. Remember, 260 million Americans received at least one of Fauci’s death jabs, that fill the entire vascular system with toxic spike prions, causing microscopic blood clots, myocarditis, severe allergic reactions and auto-immune disorder, not to mention spontaneous abortions and miscarriages galore.

Non-pandemic-related morbidity becomes a pandemic of its own

Sales of insurance policies have skyrocketed, along with premiums for those policies. The blame has been cast by these insurance companies on “non-pandemic-related morbidity” and “unusual claims adjustments.” Let’s call it what it really is... “vaccine-induced injuries and deaths adjustments.” That’s because the COVID death jabs are the most dangerous “vaccines” ever invented, killing more people than every vaccine combined since the early 1960s.

Morbidity means disease, and millions of people who got the Fauci Flu jabs are stricken with new disorders and diseases, including COVID-19. The vaccines are far from “safe and effective,” and that’s why they (the vaccine industrial complex) have to push boosters so heavily and cover up all the carnage with fake news, while suppressing truth news that exposes the scandemic.

MASS SHOOTING UP: Doctors and vaccines kill more young adults than all the guns combined

Americans who take prescription medications are the sickest people in the world. They are the same patients who take every vaccine their doctors and the highly corrupt CDC recommends, and participate in “emergency” experiments that cause horrific adverse events. Millions of patients who are prescribed psychotropic drugs experience the worst of side effects, including increased thoughts of suicide and homicide, leading to massive increases of mass shootings and deaths across the nation. They’re like walking zombies with aggressive panic disorders heightened by mind-altering drugs.

Now, most of these same sickly, mentally-disturbed patients are having their vascular system clogged with prions, that go straight to the brain, causing more mental breakdowns, panic attacks, anxiety disorders and murderous rampages.

America doesn’t need gun control legislation; we need prescription drug control legislation. We’re under constant attack by Big Pharma via deadly drugs and deadly vaccines. The truth is out there, but the drug-induced masses can’t see the forest for the trees, but the death insurance claims sure do reveal it all. It’s time to ban vaccines, not guns.
