

Video: Fauci Proclaims He Had “Nothing To Do With” Closing Schools During Lockdown

Description

USA: Claims he pushed for keeping schools open

Anthony Fauci continued to pathetically attempt to rewrite history Sunday by declaring that schools closing and remaining closed during the pandemic was “nothing to do with” him.

Fauci made the comments during an interview with ABC's This Week, with host Jon Karl asking him “Was it a mistake... to see schools closed as long as they were?”

Not only did Fauci refuse to take any blame for school closures, he claimed that he actively pushed for schools to stay open.

“I don’t want to use the word mistake, Jon, because if I do, it gets taken out of the context that you’re asking me the question on,” Fauci asserted, adding “I would say that what we should realize and have realized – that there will be deleterious collateral consequences when you do something like that.”

“You shouldn’t discount that it does afflict children, so it isn’t without consequences,” he continued, further claiming “If you go back – and I ask anybody to go back – over the number of times I’ve said ‘we gotta everything we can to keep the schools open,’ no one plays that clip,” Fauci said.

“They always come back and say, ‘Fauci was responsible for closing schools. I had nothing to do [with it],’” he continued, proclaiming that he wasn’t the head of the school board.

Does the glorified gnome really think people don't have the ability to research exactly what he's been saying for nearly 3 years? pic.twitter.com/FIBPkL5Q2U

Did he really say the schools should remain open? No one recalls that because it didn't happen. When he did mention the possibility of re-opening schools, it was always couched in calls for masking, social distancing and vaccinating kids.

Unbelievable! Does Fauci NOT know that the Internet lives forever? HERE are the receipts:

THREAD: Contrary to his latest media tour, Dr. Fauci was in fact the point person on shutting down schools in America. As the self-appointed Covid czar, politicos & the media turned to him for advice, and his was to lock kids out.

CDC Director Rochelle Walensky released guidance to schools across the country for reopening in back in 2021.

What was not released: advisement came from Democrat backed, Soros funded, left-wing activists just days ahead of the rollout.
