As a 23 year police officer in the GTA, I have never come across a shooting that involved licensed gun owners. At these shootings PM SockPuppet is refering to, you don't have to squint to see the usual suspects. The players never change, their game never changes. The only way to change the narrative is to change the jepordy of the game with minimum sentencing. Lets elect our judges on 3 year terms and let them run on their report cards for reelection.
