

World Economic Forum says the only way to “save humanity” is to unleash the pedophiles

Description

In order to make the world a better place, the World Economic Forum (WEF) wants the nations of the world to legalize or at least decriminalize pedophilia, which the globalists are now referring to as “age gap love.”

To criminalize the sexual molestation of children is to “violate human rights,” according to WEF head Klaus Schwab and his partner in crime Yuval Noah Harari, who says God is dead and “Jesus is fake news.”

At its most recent Davos gathering, the WEF tried to argue that normalizing pedophilia and child rape will “save humanity” from, you guessed it: climate change. The WEF also stated that the growing pedophilia epidemic is “nature’s gift” to mankind for a number of reasons.

One of those reasons is that molested children become so damaged that they are very unlikely to have families themselves. Child abuse and the destruction of innocence, according to the WEF, is nature’s way of cleansing the world and “saving humanity” from itself.

Destroying the family unit and allowing adult perverts to engage in sexual perversion with “underage people,” as the WEF is now calling them, will help to depopulate the planet and bring it back into “harmony” and “balance.”

Schwab bragged that pedophilia-pushing globalists – many of them pedophiles themselves – have infiltrated every level of Western “education”

One major way that the WEF is steering society towards accepting and even celebrating pedophilia as normal is through the “education,” aka indoctrination system.

Schwab himself bragged in Davos that his globalist minions have infiltrated every level of Western education, which explains the heavy push for LGBTQP – the P stands for pedophilia – at even the preschool level.

Today's children – at least the ones who are sent to "school" rather than homeschooled by their loving parents – are constantly barraged with sexual perversion in the classroom, often by LGBTQP "teachers" who expose them to as much deviancy as they can get away with.

These same children end up embracing sexual perversion themselves. Some cut off their body parts to turn "trans" while others engage in pedophilic behavior with pervert adults, who in some cases are their own "teachers."

This deviancy then spreads as these damaged children go out into society and spread the gospel of LGBTQP themselves, creating an entire society of sexual perverts who live their lives in hot pursuit of their latest victims. This is the America that was long envisioned by the globalists as ideal for achieving their goals.

The globalist-controlled media, including The New York Times, CNN, BBC, and others are also pushing pro-pedophilia propaganda, arguing that pedophiles are "normal" people just like everybody else.

It is clear from all this societal programming that the globalists are trying to shift what is known as the Overton window, or the framework of acceptable social trends, in favor of child abuse and child rape.

"According to the global elite in Davos, it's time for mainstream society to catch up with them and relax the outdated social taboo against pedophilia," writes Baxter Dmitry for Newspunch about the issue. "And what better way to change society's morals than by brainwashing the children?"

The one thing that all of these WEF policies have in common, Dmitry further adds, is that "they dehumanize, degrade and mock us."

"They are designed to take away all of the joys of life and inflict maximum pain," he concludes about the globalist endgame for humanity.
